Tobii's CFO to Leave the Company

Tobii today announced that Esben Olesen has decided to leave Tobii after five years as Chief Financial Officer.

Esben Olesen, part of Tobii's Group Management Team, has been employed since 2011. He will retain his responsibilities as CFO of Tobii until he leaves office in March 2017. The process of appointing a successor is under way. Esben Olesen will leave Tobii to take upon a similar position at another company.

"Esben has played a significant role at Tobii, particularly before and during the company's IPO, and he has contributed to Tobii's success during these years. I will miss our close cooperation and wish Esben all the best in his new position," said Henrik Eskilsson, CEO of Tobii.
