

Banimmo has sold CAP2 building located in Luxembourg to Orco Property Group for EUR 31.5 million

Brussels – December 20th, 2007, 5.45 PM– On December 19, 2007 Banimmo sold the CAP2 building located at Capellen in the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg for a global price of €31,5 Mio.

The buyer is ORCO PROPERTY GROUP, a company specialized in real estate in Central Europe, which is quoted in Paris, Prague, Warsaw and Budapest.

The building develops 7.750 sqm and 250 parking bays. Save 470 sqm, the building is entirely let to first class tenants. Part of it will be used by ORCO PROPERTY GROUP as headquarters.

For BANIMMO, this transaction represents the third one in 2007 in accordance with the sales program announced at the I.P.O. This sale will allow Banimmo to exceed in fiscal year 2007 the initial trading projection, which was made at the I.P.O.

For ORCO PROPERTY GROUP, it is the first important investment on the Luxembourg real estate market.

About Banimmo

Banimmo, active in re-positioning and re-development of real estate, buys buildings with a high re-development potential in order to sell them on after restoration and conversion. From its head office in Brussels, Banimmo is active in Belgium, France and Luxembourg both in the office, retail and semi-retail real estate markets and in exhibition and conference centres. The French branch concentrates on the French market from its office in Paris.

The company has about 30 employees. Up to now, Banimmo has invested in about 25 properties, making for a total portfolio value of more than EUR 280 million. Belgium is the most important market, with a market value of more than 70% of the portfolio, while France accounts for little more than 20% of the portfolio. The portfolio is continually developing, thanks to the constant re-positioning and sale of assets. The French group Affine owns 50% of Banimmo, in partnership with management, which owns 27%. The public owns the remaining 23%.
